ANARCHIST BRUTALITY.
An Examination of the Slayer of Empress Elizabeth.

PROUD OF HIS BRUTAL CRIME.

Expresses a Fear That He May Be Mistaken for a Degenerate, Says He Is an Anarchist by Conviction and Threatens "All Who Make Men Miserable."

Geneva, Sept. 13.—The body of the murdered Empress Elizabeth has been enclosed in a triple coffin and placed in a room transformed into a mortuary chamber. The walls of this apartment are veiled with black drapery covered with silver stars and several soldiers of Charity are continually on their knees beside the bier, praying for the soul of the departed. Nearby stands the prayer table of the deceased, bearing her rosary and crucifix.

On the order of a magistrate the assassin was taken yesterday afternoon from St. Anthony prison to the Anatomical Institute, where he was measured and photographed. Portraits were given to the press and will be distributed to police in the cities where he has lived.

In the course of a second examination as to his history and the motives for the crime he said he had never known his father or mother. He was brought up at Parma, Italy, in a charity school, and at the age of 19 was thrown on the streets without resources. He worked as an unskilled laborer until he was 20. He then served in the Italian army three and a half years.

On leaving his regiment he was employed as a valet de chambre of the Prince of Aragon for three months. At this time anarchist ideas began to possess his mind, and—to use his own words—"prevented me from remaining in service."

In the course of a life of adventure he happened to be in Budapest in 1894. There for the first time he met Empress Elizabeth. He was miserable and without work, and applied to the Italian consul to be returned to Italy. The consul sent him to Fiume.

His description of his subsequent wanderings was vague, but he said he seldom, if ever, obtained work. While staying at Lausanne he saw a file outside a junk shop, purchased it with no preconceived purpose, and made a clumsy wooden handle for it.

In prison he has boasted of his crime, and he has addressed a letter to a Milan newspaper expressing a fear lest he be mistaken by Professor Casar Lombroso for a degenerate. Dilating in this communication upon the objects of militant anarchism he wrote:

"Above all it is the great who must be struck. Not only sovereigns and their ministers will be reached by the comrades, but all who make men miserable on earth."
He says he was not impelled by misery to kill the empress, as such a course would have been idiotic, but he committed the deed "in order that such crimes, following one upon another, might cause all who impoverish the populace to tremble and shiver." The document concludes with this declaration: "I am an anarchist by conviction."

Robbed the Grave.
A startling incident of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was a most yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated in a continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Pills' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at A. Waseley's drug store.

Cabinet Party de Clam Retired.
Paris, Sept. 13.—President Faure has retired Colonel Du Paty de Clam, at the suggestion of the minister of war, General Zurlinden. Two cabinet meetings have considered the question of the resignation of the Dreyfus case, and adjourned until Saturday, at the request of the minister of justice, M. Sarrien, who is desirous of more time in which to consider the documents. The court has refused to release former Colonel Picquart, pending a rehearing of the case against him.

A Few Pointers.
The recent statistics of the number of deaths show that the large majority die with consumption. This disease may commence with an apparently harmless cough which can be cured instantly by Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs, which is guaranteed to cure and relieve all cases. Price 25 and 50c. sold by all druggists; ask for a free sample to-day.

Proposed National Naval Reserve.
Chicago, Sept. 13.—A movement for the creation of a national naval reserve, with an Illinois naval militia as nucleus, has been started in this city by local naval officers. Lieutenant Commander John M. Hawley, head of the recruiting department of the United States navy, and officers of the Illinois Naval Reserve association, and the militia are enthusiastically in favor of the project. Efforts will be made here to introduce the subject before the next congress for action.

Grain-O aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. It is not a stimulant but a health builder, and children, as well as adults, can drink it with great benefit. Costs about 4c as much as coffee. 15 and 25c.

Heroes Will Not Parade.
Washington, Sept. 13.—The plan of having a parade in New York of the troops returning from Porto Rico and that of Montauk has been definitely abandoned. This is the result of conferences on the subject between the president and General Miles, and of consultations with army officers in New York and Camp Wikoff.

W. M. BAKER, Chief of the South Bend Fire Department.

SOUTH BEND is justly proud of its fire department. There is no braver set of firemen to be found, and Chief Baker is a man who possesses now, as formerly, all the qualifications that make him a model "Fire Chief." There was a time, however, when he had reached a condition physically, which would have compelled him to resign his arduous and most important office, owing to a complication of nerve disorders and heart disease, had it not been for a most fortunate circumstance, by which his attention was called to Dr. Miles' Restorative Remedies. Please read his letter, carefully.

Office of Chief of Fire Department, South Bend, Indiana.
"Gentlemen:—My duties, and perhaps, the natural anxieties of my position, gradually brought upon me nervous prostration and heart trouble. I felt this with increasing emphasis for four years, until it became so bad that I would be overcome with shortness of breath and dizziness, and would imagine I was staggering. The slightest noise would startle me, and the least excitement set my heart to beating so that it would seem to jump out of my body. Upon retiring I would feel such a faint, sinking sensation that I would spring from my bed for relief, and I suffered severely, both physically and mentally. I was treated by several physicians and tried many patent remedies, without relief, until I commenced using Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve. The first bottle helped me so that I slept better and rested well. I used two bottles of the Nerve and then one bottle of the New Heart Cure. I gained twenty pounds in a short time. It has cured me, and I can cheerfully recommend Dr. Miles' Nerve and Heart Cure to all who suffer as I did, for I know they will be benefited or cured thereby.

Yours very truly,
W. M. BAKER.

AGUINALDO'S AMBITION.

No Desire for Annexation to the United States.

"WANT ONLY INDEPENDENCE."

He Declares That the Filipinos Who Profess to Favor Annexation Are Insincere—Merely a Ruse to Ascertain American Views.

Manila, Philippine Islands, Sept. 13.—Rear Admiral Dewey says he considers the situation critical. It is understood he has asked for an additional cruiser and battleship. The Spaniards assert that Spain will take a cooling station here, and that Spain will retain the remainder of the islands. The last Spanish garrisons at Iloilo and Laguna have surrendered, and the whole of Luzon, from the hands of the insurgents, except at Manila and Cavite.

Aguinaldo went to Malolos on Friday. He has announced his intention of convening an assembly of the Filipinos on Sept. 15, in order to decide upon the policy to be adopted by the insurgents.

A correspondent here has had an interview with Aguinaldo, who said there were 67,000 insurgents armed with rifles. He added he could raise 100,000 men. Indeed, the insurgent leader pointed out, the whole population of the Philippine Islands was willing to fight for their independence.

Continuing, Aguinaldo said he had 9,000 military prisoners, including 5,000 in the vicinity of Manila, besides civil prisoners.

Later Aguinaldo said the "provincial government" was now operating in 25 provinces. He asserted that on Aug. 2 they elected delegates, in numbers proportionate to the population.

When questioned as to whether the future Filipino policy was to be absolute independence, Aguinaldo excused himself from replying, and asked what America intends to do.

The correspondent being unable to answer this question, Aguinaldo continued:

"We have been fighting for independence for a long time. The natives who profess to favor annexation are insincere. It is merely a ruse to ascertain American views."
Asked if the Filipinos would object to the retention of Manila, Aguinaldo declined to answer.

"Would the Filipinos object to America retaining a coaling station, if recognizing the independence of the islands or establishing a temporary protectorate over them?"

Aguinaldo again declined to answer. Pending the conclusion of the assembly, Aguinaldo said, he was confident there would be no trouble between America and the Filipinos.

The insurgent leader denied having received a request from General Otis and Rear Admiral Dewey to withdraw his troops to a prescribed distance from Manila and Cavite, and he declined to discuss the effect of such a request.

Aguinaldo further asserted that he had never conferred with the American authorities since the capitulation of Manila, and that he had never authorized the insurgents to search or disarm Americans crossing the lines.

The correspondent closely questioned him about last Saturday's incident, when the Pennsylvania troops proceeded to establish a new outpost. The Filipinos objected and nearly precipitated hostilities, ordering the Americans to withdraw in 20 minutes. They looted ammunition and intercepted the American reinforcements. Finally General Hale ordered all the Pennsylvanians to advance, and the rebels withdrew.

The local governor has explained that the incident was a complete mistake, and has repudiated his subordinate's action. Aguinaldo declared to this correspondent that the Filipinos who made the trouble merely pretended to be an officer, and is entirely unconnected with the insurgent army.

Aguinaldo complained that the Spaniards were "disparagingly false reports" for the purpose of fomenting antagonism between the Filipinos and the Americans.

The whole interview conveyed the impression that Aguinaldo desires absolute independence, regards the mission of the American forces as accomplished, and expects their withdrawal. "Just as the French with Lafayette withdrew after helping the Americans in the war of independence, a war of humanity."

Just now Aguinaldo maintains the role of extreme friendship.

STORM IN SPAIN'S SENATE.
The Count D'Almeida Names Officers Madrid, Sept. 13.—The session of the senate yesterday was stormy. Count D'Almeida, challenged to give the names of the generals who he recently said ought to be disgraced, replied: "Very well, as you wish it, I will. The generals to whom I referred are General Primo de Rivera, I will also include in the same category Admiral Cervera." This announcement led to an extraordinary scene of tumult.

PLUNGED THROUGH A TRESTLE.

One Man Killed and Several Others Have Narrow Escapes.

Texarkana, Tex., Sept. 13.—About noon Sunday rain began falling here and continued for 36 hours, the country adjacent to Texarkana being flooded. Sulphur river rose 12 feet Sunday night. All trains entering Texarkana have been delayed on account of washouts, and especially in Louisiana and Texas, south and west of here. Passenger trains had to be rerouted, and the Pacific road, here in three to six feet of water near Buchanan, 12 miles south. It was late and running at a high rate of speed when it switched around a curve into a washout on a feeding spur to Sulphur river. The trestle work and several hundred feet of track were gone, and the engine, baggage, express and smoking cars went into the water.

Professor Caldwell, a school teacher of Queen City, Tex., was crushed to death in the forward end of the smoker, while J. E. Cotman, of Fort Worth, was badly injured in a narrow escape. Smith's left hand was crushed and the others suffered severe bruises. Expressman Guy Wilker was badly bruised about the legs. The wrecked cars were turned over and smashed.

One Minute Cough Cure surprises people by its quick cures and children may take it in large quantities without the least danger. It has won for itself the best reputation of any cough remedy in the world, containing nothing in the throat or obstructive coughs. C. H. Hagenbuch.

A City of Tents.
Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 13.—At New Westminster today, on a wide, open space just beyond where the great fire of Sunday stopped, a city of tents has been pitched. The provincial government and Vancouver authorities have housed in tents tented them by the military department all homeless sufferers. Blankets by hundreds formed beds, and the burned out families seem to be as comfortable as possible under the circumstances. There was no panic in the crowds of burned out and homeless people. A number of robberies took place during the fire. Johnson's boot store was entered while some of the stock was being taken out and about $5,000 worth of goods stolen.

More than twenty million free samples of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve have been distributed by the manufacturers. What better proof of their confidence in its merits do you want? It cures piles, burns, scalds, sores, in the shortest space of time. C. H. Hagenbuch.

The Heir of Young Wheeler.
Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 13.—Naval Cadet Thomas H. Wheeler, the younger son of General Joseph Wheeler, was buried yesterday in the family burial ground on the general's estate, at Wheeler's Station, Alabama. The funeral at the grave was very impressive. The casket was literally covered with flowers from all sections of the country, north and south contributing. Topping all was the dead sailor's sword and belt, and enveloping the coffin was an immense American flag. General Wheeler, carver and half III, is completely crushed by the death of his son. He said today that the undertakers and life savers at Montauk told him that the young man had evidently lost his life in trying to save the lives of his companion, whose arms were locked around his son's body in a death grip, while his face was covered with scratches, evidently from the other's finger nails.

It is a marvel how some men will risk their lives by sheer neglect. They sleep away entirely oblivious of the danger creeping upon them. Men are made to realize that a little spluttering spark of disease which might be stamped out in an instant may in a moment become a powder keg which will blow up a leg of a powder.

If your health is not strong and vigorous it is a simple and sensible thing to write to Dr. E. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Institute of Buffalo, N. Y., and obtain from him and his staff of eminent specialists, without charge, professional advice which will enable you to put your constitution on a solid basis of health and strength forthwith, before these ailments have a chance to reduce you to a physical wreck.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is acknowledged as the most wonderful medicine ever devised for those diseases which are caused by imperfect action of the liver and digestive organs.

ECZEMA ON BABY

My little six-months old girl had Eczema. We used all kinds of remedies, but also kept getting worse. I used to wrap her hands tight to her body, but to put her on the table I could not hold her, she would kick and scream, and when she could, she would tear her face and arms almost to pieces. Four boxes of C. H. Hagenbuch's ECZEMA RESOLVER cured her, and no traces are left. Tel. 7,708. Mrs. G. A. CUNNINGHAM, Lisbon, N. H.
